Head back to the beach for a spot of beach volleyball, beach racquetball, badminton, kiting or frisbee throwing. Relax on one of our deckchairs in the shade of a parasol on the beach or get your teeth into a good book.

Onboard a traditional dugout canoe, head for the village of Ampangorina where the women embroider tablecloths, and the men produce wood carvings. For a brief moment you can share in the life of this bustling village focused on handicrafts.

1 incredible massage using Madagascan essential oils; so we have the choice:

- Ylang Ylang, Lemongrass and Lavandin to soothe and relax sore muscles.
- Eucalyptus, Peppermint, Niaouli and Ravintsara to energize and activate energies.
- Cypress, Eucalyptus, Geranium, Ginger to relax the body. Cinnamon, Pink Berry, Cypress and Eucalyptus to improve skin tone and slimming...

There's nothing like it for a toned, light sensation. Prepare for a moment of pure delight, comfortably relaxed on the private terrace of your Lodge, looking out into the bay.

Follow your private guide for a trek through the dense and majestic forest bordering the property. Nosy Komba is a former volcano today covered by a lush tropical forest, which is home to all kinds of trees or flowers and extremely rich wildlife. You can meet the mischievous Macaco lemurs (a 4-hour trek), the slow but bright chameleons, birds, lizards, frogs and colourful butterflies. You'll also be passing through vanilla and wild pepper plantations, bringing a delightful touch of fragrance to your trip.

OR cooking class with the lodge's chef: Tina Hary.

Breakfast in the beach of Nosy Antanihely, the "Island of the little earth" or Nosy Tanikely has acquired the status of Protected Marine and Coastal Area over the years. Known for its outstanding marine and land-based biodiversity, this island is the one most frequently visited in the archipelago. With a mask and a snorkel, you will discover the underwater wonders of which this natural aquarium abounds. A must!

The highly creative cuisine of Chef Tina combines marvellously with the magical environment of Tsara Komba. For a romantic and unique dinner, we offer you the opportunity to reserve the beach or the Lover's Deck alongside the water's edge just for you two, or to really get the most from the intimate setting of your lodge's terrace.

Enjoy a splendid view across the bay, at dusk with the flickering candlelight to illuminate you as you gaze into one another's eyes. Tender is the night
