Visited countries

Argentina

Argentina is a country full of contrasts, colors and cultures as wide as its enormous size. Being the second largest country in South America, from north to south, who visits it discover places of undeniable beauty, diverse and welcoming cities, glaciers, jungles, deserts, plains, mountains and so much more!

Argentina is not a place to come only once. Everyone who knows it can assure that there is so much to see, that you just have to return and fall in love all over again.

Passionate for football and tango, the Argentinean is very proud to show its visitors the beauties their country has to offer, so have a taste of mate, enjoy a world class wine, fall for tango, eat the humita and fell delighted by its meat. Argentina has it all!

Regions to discover

El Calafate

El Calafate, is one of the most famous tourist destinations of the south of Argentina. Is the entrance door to some of the most stunning and spectacular natural beauties of the whole country, such as Perito Moreno Glacier, Upsala Glacier, Spegazzini Glacier, O` Nelly Glacier and the Argentinean Lake.

Located in the middle of the immense Patagonia, this lovely city welcomes every year thousands of visitors who come to fall in love with its beauties and enjoy its many varieties of excursions.

Trekking, hiking, horse back riding, kayaking and walks over ice, El Calafate gives you the chance to experience unforgettable activities which will leave you breathless and eager to find out what else is there to be discovered!

El Chalten

El Chalten is a magical and picturesque little town wich was founden beneath the Glaciers National Park. Warm and under the surveillance of the Condor, this mystical place is also know as the international capital of trekking in Argentina; and for a reason, since it has many different walking trails that will lead you to many of the amazing beauties this place has to offer, such Mirador de los Cóndores, Laguna Capri, Laguna Torre and of course, the magnificent Fitz Roy mountain.

Just a couple of hours away from El Calafate, El Chalten has a wide variety of comodities to make your stay unique; hotels, restaurants, wineries, guide services and tour agencies.

Magic, nature and adventure, three words that describe this beautiful and young place.

We leave El Chaltén on the footpath that heads towards Laguna Toro. Having walked for about an hour in ascent and crossed over small streams and through some ñires and lengas woods, we arrive at an exposed area with a picture postcard view of Mount Fitz Roy, Torre and Huemul. We continue the hike across the Pampas, locally called "Pampa de las Carretas". Then, we pass through various parts of the woods in which we will be able to hear a variety of birds, inviting us to discover and identify various species of birds that live here. On leaving the forest (about 1000masl) we start to walk across an alpine terrain, where delicate flowers growing in such an arid area won't fail to surprise us. It can snow up here, even in the summer! In this section it is quite possible to find the remains of marine fossils such as ammonites and belemnites which are about 100 million years old.

In this last section we can also experience the Patagonian wind, which is just as much part of the trek!. We finally arrive at the viewpoint - nearly at 1500 masl. This spot offers an unconventional and unique view of the Torre and Fitz Roy massifs. After enjoying lunch with an unforgettable vista we return to El Chaltén,
