Visited countries

Argentina

Argentina is a country full of contrasts, colors and cultures as wide as its enormous size. Being the second largest country in South America, from north to south, who visits it discover places of undeniable beauty, diverse and welcoming cities, glaciers, jungles, deserts, plains, mountains and so much more!

Argentina is not a place to come only once. Everyone who knows it can assure that there is so much to see, that you just have to return and fall in love all over again.

Passionate for football and tango, the Argentinean is very proud to show its visitors the beauties their country has to offer, so have a taste of mate, enjoy a world class wine, fall for tango, eat the humita and fell delighted by its meat. Argentina has it all!

Regions to discover

Mendoza

Mendoza is an oasis in the middle of the mountains. This paradise, worldwide famous for being the land of Malbec, is the wine capital of Argentina. With a first class gastronomic offer, there you will find hundreds of wineries, that await for you to try their products, all of them surrounded by the stunning beauties of its nature.

Watched by the Aconcagua Mountain, the highest mountain in Argentina, Mendoza is a destiny for adventure too; there you can do rafting, canopy, trekking and hiking.. One thing is for sure, in Mendoza the fun is always there!

When you are here, do not skip the Puente del Inca, or the Inca Bridge, an stunning natural structure of 50 mt long and exceptional beauty. You can also relax in the warm and very healthy waters of the Cacheuta Termal Waters, where you will be left as new to keep on discovering all the options Mendoza has to offer.

If you are lucky enough to visit this region during the first week of march, come along and be part of the most important fest of the year, "La Fiesta de La Vendimia", where the wine, folklore and food take place to celebrate this fun, colorful and fun party like no other,
