Day 2-3 – Golden Eagle Festival

Golden Eagle Festival is a must-see event in Asia, particularly in Mongolia. It is a festival to demonstrate the culture of the Kazakhs to the world and promotes their heritage to their next generations. Golden Eagles (Aquila Chrysaetos) have incredible speed, great eyesight, and powerful feet with sharp talons. The Eagles are hooded by a specially made hood to keep them calm. It is removed when scanning areas of the steppes. The Eagles can spot even the slightest twitch from a great distance. The average male eagle weight is 3.6 kilograms (8 pounds) and for females 5 kilograms (11 pounds). The hunting is done on a horseback. The greater weight female eagle is supported by forked support fitted to the saddle while traveling on the horseback
